Once there was a little boy and a little girl who lived with their separate families in different parts of the country. These two children learned about God in their childhood, and never forgot Him.

Over the years, they grew up and in the process of time, God caused their lives to cross. They fell in love.

They married with few possessions. Their wedding was small and humble with few guests, and their reception even smaller, but they loved each other fervently.

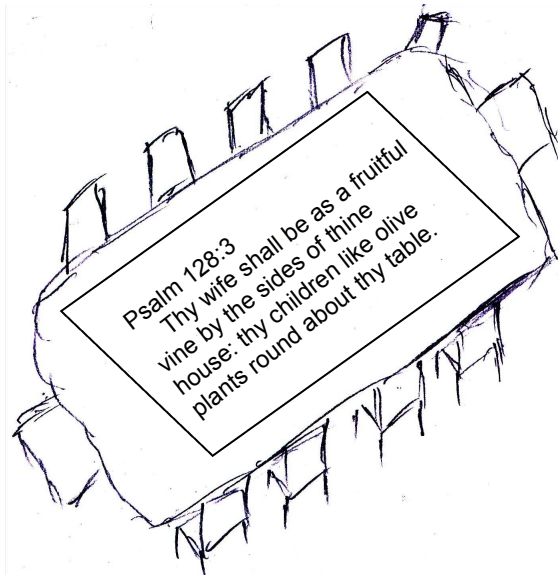

Together, they continued to trust God with their lives and decisions. Because of their faithfulness, God blessed them with much fruit from the womb. And they loved and cherished every child.

"Lo, children are an heritage of the Lord: and the fruit of the womb is his reward. As arrows are in the hand of a mighty man; so are children of the youth. Happy is the man that hath his quiver full of them: they shall not be ashamed, but they shall speak with the enemies in the gate" (Psalm 127:3-5).

They studied the scriptures to learn how to care for their little ones and found these words:

"Train up a child in the way he should go: and when he is old, he will not depart from it" (Proverbs 22:6).

They were delighted at this promise from God; therefore, they made a promise to each other to faithfully teach their children the word of God, trusting that the Lord would one day bring them to the knowledge of salvation, just as He did to them.

So they diligently set out to teach their children the Wonderful Words of Eternal Life. One by one, they gave their children precept upon precept and line upon line; here a little, and there a little over many years.

Fret not thyself because of evildoers, neither be thou envious against the workers of iniquity.

The angel of the Lord encampeth round about them that fear him, and delivereth them.

Add thou not unto His words, lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar.

Better is a poor and wise child than an old and foolish king, who will no more be admonished.

We use the OLD King James Version:

Amos 8:11 "Behold, the days come, saith the Lord God, that I will send a famine in the land, not a famine of bread, nor a thirst for water, but of hearing the words of the Lord."

Enter not into the path
of the wicked, and go not in the way of evil men.

Treasures of
wickedness profit
nothing.

Honor thy father and
thy mother: that thy days
may be long.

Wisdom is the principal thing; therefore get wisdom: and with all thy getting...
get understanding.

Every word
of God
is pure.

Wine is a mocker,
strong drink is raging:
and whosoever is deceived thereby
is not wise.

Blessed is every one that feareth the Lord; that walketh in his ways.

Commit thy works
unto the Lord, and thy thoughts shall be established.

Then I saw,
and considered it well;
I looked upon it,
and received instruction.

As a dog retur-
neth to his vomit,
so a fool returneth
to his folly.

Because sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of men
is fully set in them to do evil.

When I was a child, I spake
as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child: but when I became a man, I put away childish things.

Except ye
REPENT,
ye shall ALL
likewise PERISH

Children,
obey your parents in the Lord, for this is RIGHT.

Through wisdom is an
house builded; and by understanding
it is established

He that believeth on the Son
hath everlasting life:
and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him.

He that is void of wisdom
despiseth his neighbor;
but a man of understanding holdeth his peace.

To OBEY is BETTER than SACRIFICE.

Only by PRIDE cometh contention: but with the well advised is wisdom.

The rod and reproof give wisdom: but a child left to himself bringeth his mother to shame.

But when the children grew, they left their nest with new-found freedom and went their ways. They joined with the world, a world contrary to their upbringing, and they embraced it fully.

"And when the [children] saw that the [world pleasures] was good for food, and that it was pleasant to the eyes, and a [world] to be desired to make one wise, [they] took of the fruit [of disobedience] thereof, and did eat, and gave also unto [their brothers and sisters] with [them]; and [they all] did eat" (Genesis 3:6).

Wherefore their parents, seeing they departed from "the way," called out to them using the Word of God as a reminder, saying,

"...come out from among [the world], and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you, and will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty" (2 Cor. 6:17-18).

But their children would not come. However, the parents, remembering the promise that God made to them, comforted their hearts:

"Train up a CHILD in the way he should go: and WHEN HE IS OLD, HE WILL NOT DEPART FROM IT" (Proverbs 22:6).

Therefore, the parents had comfort in the remembrance of those words, knowing that God will keep His promise to them. They earnestly pray together for their children, and the families of their children.

What about you? Have you heard the Wonderful Words of Eternal Life in your lifetime, and ignored it? Have you prepared your children with the word of God?

What? You don't believe that God exists; or believe that Jesus rose from the dead; or that God spoke, and holy men wrote it down? Listen...

You are an eternal being. Although your body goes back to dust, you will never die, and here is why:

"And God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness... So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them" (Genesis 1:26-27).

"And the Lord God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living soul" (Genesis 2:7).

No man on the face of the earth, past, present or future, can PROVE that this did not happen. Neither can any man PROVE that it did happen. This is WHY God said:

"But without FAITH it is IMPOSSIBLE to please GOD: for he that cometh to God MUST believe that he IS, and that he is a REWARDER of them that DILIGENTLY seek him" (Hebrews 11:6).

Today is the DAY of salvation. NOW is the accepted time (2 Cor. 6:2). Please, don't put it off. The lives of your love ones may indeed depend on the "choice" you make right now.

There are many appealing "roads" to follow in this present world, but there is only ONE WAY that leads to eternal life. So, choose wisely.

Enter ye in at the strait gate: for WIDE is the gate, and BROAD is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and MANY there be which go in thereat: because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto Life, and FEW there be that FIND IT.
